

Skills for Work and Study

Community Services

Understand the community services sector in a pre-accredited Literacy and Numeracy course that covers:

- speaking, listening, reading, writing and numeracy skills
- identifying skills relevant to the community sector
- oral and written communication
- workplace code of conduct
- job roles and responsibilities

Time:

Thursdays and Fridays

- 10am – 2pm
- 5pm – 9pm

Eligibility:

You must be an Australian or New Zealand citizen or hold an Australian permanent visa, and live in the City of Maribyrnong.

Why enrol in a Skills for Work and Study course?

Learn Local providers deliver the government funded Skills for Work and Study courses. Nearly 30,000 Victorians undertake pre-accredited training each year to identify their strengths, interests and goals.

For further information or to register, please contact:

Vesna Trampevska Talevska

Phone: 0422 226 105

Email: training@amcservices.org.au